

Norton Secure VPN License and Services Agreement (LSA)

(Last Updated: August 26, 2020)

Thank you for choosing Norton Secure VPN, brought to you by NortonLifeLock. For purposes of this License and Services Agreement (these “Terms”), “NortonLifeLock”, “we”, or “us” means NortonLifeLock Inc., and/or its subsidiaries and affiliates, and its successors and assigns (collectively “NortonLifeLock” “we,” “our,” or “us”). These Terms set out your rights and the conditions upon which you may use the Norton Secure VPN software and services (collectively the “Services”) and include three parts: (1) General Terms; (2) Software License Terms; and (3) Country/Region Specific Terms. These Terms also apply to any updates and support services for the Services provided by us, unless other terms accompany those items.

You agree to be bound by these Terms by either: (1) creating an account with the Services; (2) downloading the Software or using the Software or Services; and/or (3) clicking an acceptance button or otherwise electronically agreeing to be bound to these Terms.

Important Notice Regarding Arbitration For U.S. Customers – If you reside in the U.S. when you agree to these terms, you agree to resolve all disputes with us and our affiliates through small claims courts or through arbitration on an individual basis rather than jury trials or class actions. Please review Section 2 “Disputes; Mandatory arbitration” of Part 1 - General Terms, for details regarding arbitration (including the procedure to opt out of arbitration).

PART 1 – GENERAL TERMS

1. Your Privacy. Your privacy is important to us. Please read our Global Privacy Statement (<https://www.NortonLifeLock.com/privacy>) and product and service-specific Privacy Notices (<https://www.nortonlifelock.com/privacy/product-privacy-notice/>) which describe how we collect, process, and share personal data from you and your devices when you use and access our Services.
2. Disputes; Mandatory Arbitration. Most disagreements can be resolved informally and efficiently by contacting our Member Services & Support at <https://support.norton.com>. If you are a U.S. customer, you and we agree that any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or relating in any way to the Services (a “Claim”) will be determined by binding arbitration or small claims court, instead of in courts of general jurisdiction.
 - a. Small Claims Court. Either of us can seek to have a Claim resolved in small claims court if all the requirements of the small claims court are satisfied, including any limitations on jurisdiction and the amount at issue in the dispute. Either of us may seek to have a Claim resolved in small claims court in your county of residence or in the Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara.
 - b. Arbitration. Arbitration is more informal than a lawsuit in court. Arbitration uses a neutral arbitrator instead of a judge or jury, allows for more limited discovery than in court, and is subject to very limited review by courts. Arbitrators can award the same damages and relief that a court can award. You agree that the U.S. Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this arbitration provision, and that you and we are each waiving the right to a trial by jury or to participate in a class action. This arbitration provision shall survive termination of these Terms and/or the termination of your subscription to the Services.
 - c. Notice of Claim. If you elect to seek arbitration, you must first send to us, by certified mail, a written Notice of Your Claim (“Notice of Claim”). The Notice of Claim to us should be addressed to: Legal Department, NortonLifeLock Inc., 60 E. Rio Salado Pkwy STE 1000, Tempe, AZ 85281, and should be prominently captioned “NOTICE OF CLAIM.” The Notice of Claim should include both the mailing address and email address You would like us to use to contact you. If we elect to seek arbitration, we will send, by certified mail, a written Notice of Claim to your billing address on file. A Notice of Claim, whether sent by you or by us, must (a) describe the nature and basis of the claim or dispute; (b) set forth the specific amount of damages or other relief sought ("Demand"); and (c) whether you reject any subsequent modification of this Section by us.

- d. Arbitration Proceedings. If we do not reach an agreement to resolve the claim within thirty (30) days after the Notice of Claim is received, you or we may commence an arbitration proceeding (or, alternatively, file a claim in small claims court). You may download or copy a form of notice and a form to initiate arbitration at www.adr.org. The arbitration will be governed by the Consumer or Commercial Arbitration Rules, as appropriate, of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") (collectively, the "AAA Rules"), as modified by these Terms, and will be administered by the AAA. The AAA Rules and Forms are available online at www.adr.org. The arbitrator is bound by these Terms. All issues are for the arbitrator to decide, including issues relating to the scope and enforceability of this arbitration provision. Unless we and you agree otherwise, any arbitration hearings will take place in the county (or parish) of either your residence or of the mailing address you provided in your Notice of Claim. If your claim is for U.S. $10,000 or less, we agree that you may choose whether the arbitration will be conducted solely based on documents submitted to the arbitrator, through a telephonic hearing, or by an in-person hearing as established by the AAA Rules. If your claim exceeds U.S. $10,000, the right to a hearing will be determined by the AAA Rules. Regardless of the way the arbitration is conducted, the arbitrator shall issue a reasoned written decision sufficient to explain the essential findings and conclusions on which the award is based. If the arbitrator issues you an award that is greater than the value of our last written settlement offer made before an arbitrator was selected (or if we did not make a settlement offer before an arbitrator was selected), then we will pay you, in addition to the award, either U.S. $500 or 10% of the amount awarded, whichever is greater.
- e. Injunctive and Declaratory Relief. Except as provided in Section 2(b) above, the arbitrator shall determine all issues of liability on the merits of any claim asserted by you or us and may award declaratory or injunctive relief only in favor of the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide relief warranted by that party's individual claim. To the extent that you or we prevail on a claim and seek public injunctive relief (that is, injunctive relief that has the primary purpose and effect of prohibiting unlawful acts that threaten future injury to the public), the entitlement to and extent of such relief must be litigated in a civil court of competent jurisdiction and not in arbitration. The parties agree that litigation of any issues of public injunctive relief shall be stayed pending the outcome of the merits of any individual claims in arbitration.
- f. Arbitration Fees. Payment of all filing, administration and arbitrator fees will be governed by the AAA Rules. You are required to pay AAA's initial filing fee but we will reimburse you for this filing fee at the conclusion of the arbitration to the extent it exceeded the fee for filing a complaint in a federal or state court in your county of residence or in Santa Clara County, California. We will not seek to recover the administration and arbitrator fees we are responsible for paying under the AAA Rules or these Terms, unless the arbitrator finds that either the substance of your claim or the relief sought in your Demand for Arbitration was frivolous or was brought for an improper purpose (as measured by the standards set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(b)).
- g. Class Action Waiver. YOU AND WE AGREE THAT WE EACH MAY BRING CLAIMS AGAINST THE OTHER ONLY IN YOUR OR OUR INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY, AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING. If you have elected arbitration, unless both you and we agree otherwise, the arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's claims with your claims and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative or class proceeding. If this specific provision is found to be unenforceable, then the entirety of this Section 2 (Disputes; Mandatory Arbitration) shall be null and void.

- h. Changes. If we change this Section 2 after the date you first accepted these Terms, and you have not otherwise affirmatively agreed to such changes, you may reject any such change by so stating within Your Notice of Claim. By failing to reject any changes to this Section 2 in Your Notice of Claim, you agree to resolve any Claim between you and us in accordance with the terms of the dispute resolution section in effect as of the date of Your Notice of Claim. Prior versions of these Terms can be found at <https://www.nortonlifelock.com/legal/> or its successor URLs.

If your account has been suspended, you must contact us for further information. We may suspend your user account for a reasonable period of time before we terminate a user account permanently.
- g. Service Capacity. The Service has sufficient capacity to accommodate average non-commercial use. However, from time to time during periods of extraordinarily heavy usage of the Service, you may temporarily experience slower service or service unavailability. No such temporary slowdown or unavailability shall constitute a breach or default by us of our obligations. We reserve the right to temporarily suspend or limit your use of the Service if: (a) your usage level exceeds our average customer use level or otherwise negatively impacts the overall health of the network determined by us in our sole and absolute discretion, or (b) you exceed any bandwidth limitations associated with your account. No such suspension or limitation of the Service shall constitute a breach or default by us of our obligations.
- h. Activating Your Service. If you choose from within the Software or Services to access or use other Software or Services, or if your Software license or Services purchase entitles you to additional Software and Services, you understand and agree to the most current version of these Terms.

We will only terminate your subscription upon notice to us provided by such third party. - 22. General. You may not assign any rights hereunder, nor may any such rights be assigned by You by operation of law or otherwise, in whole or in part, without our prior written permission. Any purported assignment without such permission shall be void. We may freely assign or transfer these Terms without restriction. Subject to the foregoing, these Terms will bind and inure to the benefit of the parties, their successors and permitted assigns. Our failure to enforce any of these Terms is not a waiver of such term or right. Any waiver of our rights must be in writing, signed by us, and any such waiver shall not operate as a waiver of any future breach. These Terms document the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous or additional communications, negotiations, or agreements with respect thereto. Except for any of the provisions of Section 2(h) (“Class Action Waiver”) of these Terms, if an arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction decides that any provision of these Terms is invalid or unenforceable, the other provisions of these Terms shall still apply. Except as expressly set forth in these Terms, the exercise by either party of any of its remedies under these Terms will be without prejudice to its other remedies under these Terms or otherwise. Any notices or other communications provided by us under these Terms will be given: (i) via email; or (ii) by posting to the Services. For notices made by email, the date of receipt will be deemed the date on which such notice is transmitted. These Terms are solely and exclusively between you and us and you acknowledge and agree that (i) no third party, including a third-party channel partner of ours or any of its affiliates is a party to these Terms, and (ii) no third party, including any third-party channel partner of ours or any of its affiliates has any obligations or duties to you under these Terms. Nothing in these Terms will diminish any rights you may have under existing consumer protection legislation or other applicable laws in your jurisdiction that may not be waived by contract.

Part 2 – Software License Terms

- 1. We Own the Software. The Software (including any releases, revisions, updates or enhancements to the Software) and any documentation that accompanies or is made available in connection with Software (including any product manuals, subscription or purchase information) (the “Documentation”), is owned by us or our licensors. This includes all Intellectual Property Rights in and to the Software and Documentation. Any Software that we provide to you is licensed, not sold to you, and we reserve all rights to the Software not expressly granted in these Software License Terms.
- 2. License Grant. So long as you comply with these Terms, we grant to you a limited non-exclusive, non-transferable license, with no right to sublicense, to download and install a copy of the Software on a mobile device, computer or tablet that you own or control and to run such copy of the Software solely for purposes of accessing and using the Services where the corresponding Services are available for your own personal non-commercial use during the applicable Subscription Period.
- 3. Restrictions. You may not: (i) copy, modify or create derivative works based on the Software; (ii) distribute, transfer, sublicense, lease, lend or rent the Software to any third party; (iii) reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble the Software; or (iv) make the functionality of the Software available to third parties, except and only to the extent that applicable law expressly permits.
- 4. Single Device License; Only One Archival or Backup Copy Permitted. These Terms allow you to install only one copy of the Software for use on a single computer, mobile device or tablet, unless your subscription to the Services expressly permits you to use Software on more than one device.
