

BotSight – Product Specific Privacy Statement

1 May, 2020

BotSight is a browser extension, which flags suspected bot accounts using a custom-built state-of-the-art classifier, for use on Twitter.¹ Please see the NortonLifeLock Global Privacy Statement for additional privacy information.

	Data Access and Collection	Data Use and Processing	Data Subject Rights and Disclosure	Third Parties Processors
Data You Provide:	Subscriber Information provided by User if you choose to provide including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Username	Subscriber information is processed to deliver additional functionality of the app.	Subscriber has the ability to request that subscriber information be forgotten or deleted.	Subscriber information may be provided to the following types of third parties in order to provide agreed upon services, as well as to comply with regulatory requirements. <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Government-related Auditors▪ Services Providers

¹ Third-party brand names referenced in this policy may be trademarks of their respective owners.

Data We Collect/Access:	Subscriber information including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ IP Address ▪ UUID (Universally Unique Identifier - randomly generated upon downloading the browser extension) 	Subscriber information is processed for the purposes of delivering functionality of the app.	Subscriber information may not be made available to the Subscriber, depending on the type of information provided. The IP Address is logged on a separate database without any other correlating Subscriber information and is deleted periodically and cannot be included in a request for deletion/forgotten.	Subscriber information may be provided to the following types of third parties in order to provide agreed upon services, as well as to comply with regulatory requirements. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Government-related Auditors ▪ Services Providers
Data We Collect/Access from Third Parties:	Subscriber information including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Categories of use by Subscriber on Twitter including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Timeline ▪ Follower ▪ Following ▪ Lists ▪ Bookmarks ▪ Search ▪ Trending ▪ Thread ▪ Tweet 	Subscriber information is processed for the purposes of delivering the product.	Subscriber has the ability to request that Subscriber information be forgotten or deleted.	Subscriber information may be provided to the following types of third parties in order to provide agreed upon services, as well as to comply with regulatory requirements. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Government-related Auditors • Services Providers